Barkha, the graded reading series is developed for students of Grade I and II. The objective of the series is to provide opportunity to young children to engage with books and read meaningfully. Gradation across levels has been achieved by variation in syntax, number of words and complexity of sub-plots. Barkha facilitates reading for pleasure in children and helps them become fluent readers. Children find everyday events as interesting as stories; hence, all the stories of Barkha are based on their daily life experiences. The stories of Barkha are spread out in four levels and five themes— (i) Relationships; (ii) Birds-Animals; (iii) Musical Instruments, Games and Toys; (iv) Around us and (v) Food. Another objective of the reading series is to provide plenty of books to children. It also helps in cognitive development of children in all curricular domains.

It is suggested that Barkha books be kept at a place in the classroom where children have easy access.

Puffed Rotis

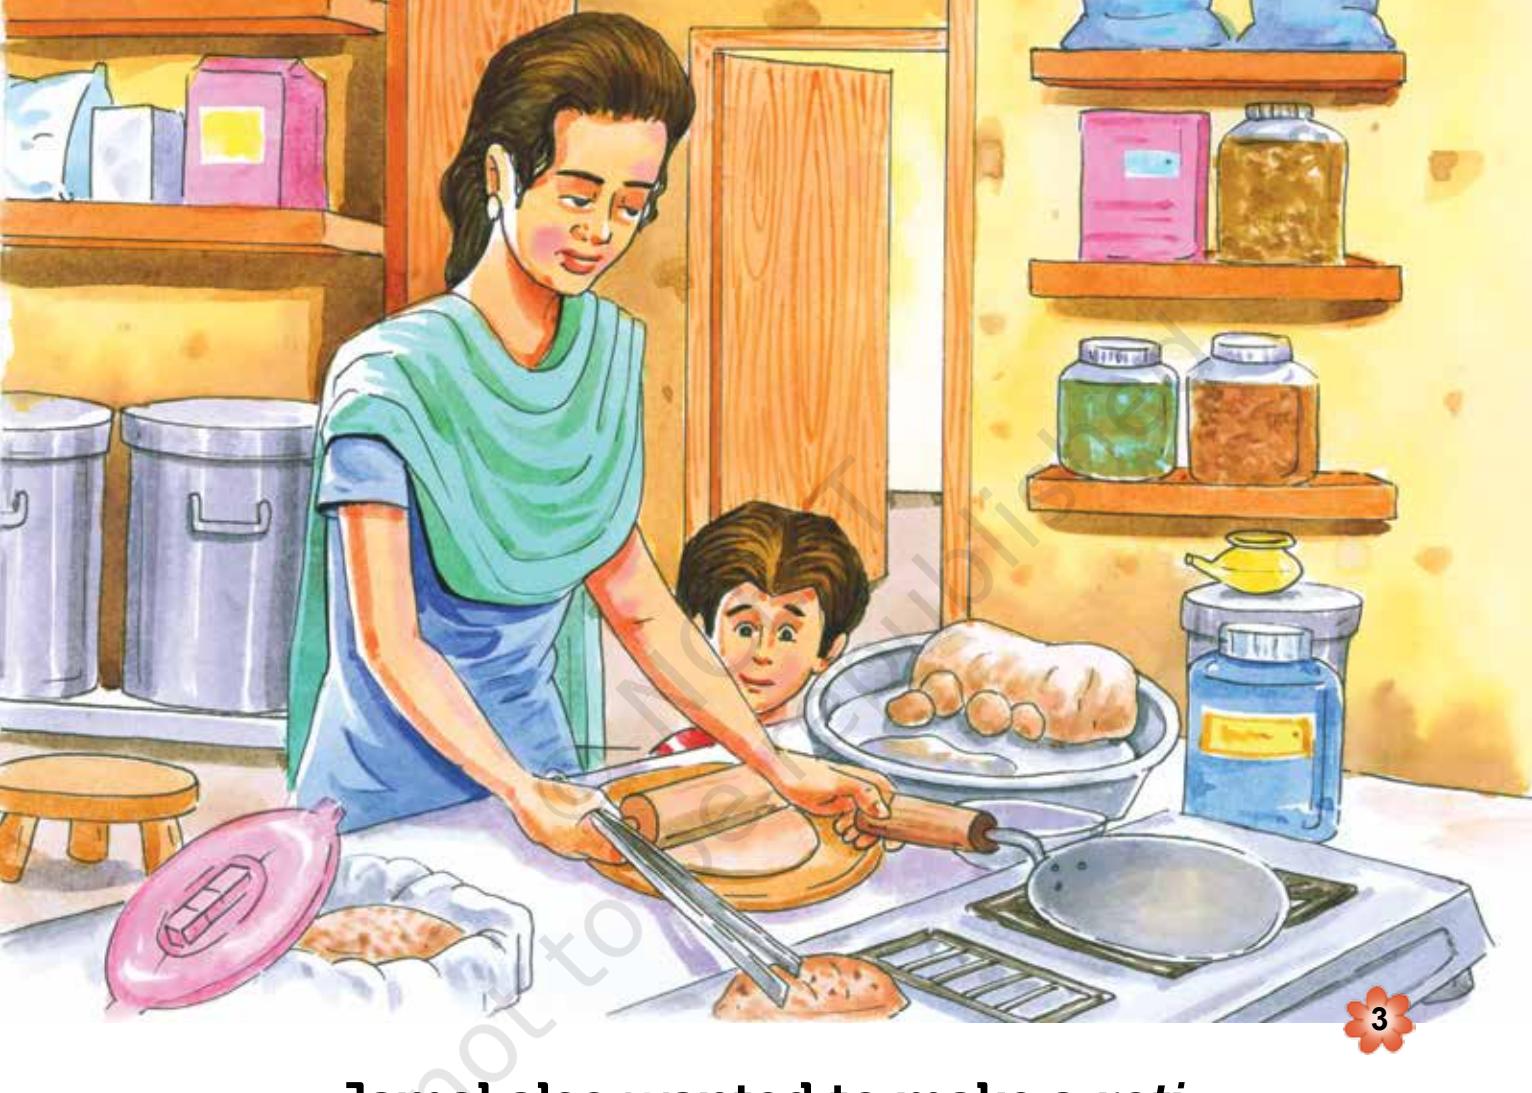

Mummy

Jamal

2

One day, Jamal's mother was making rotis.

3

Jamal also wanted to make a roti.

4

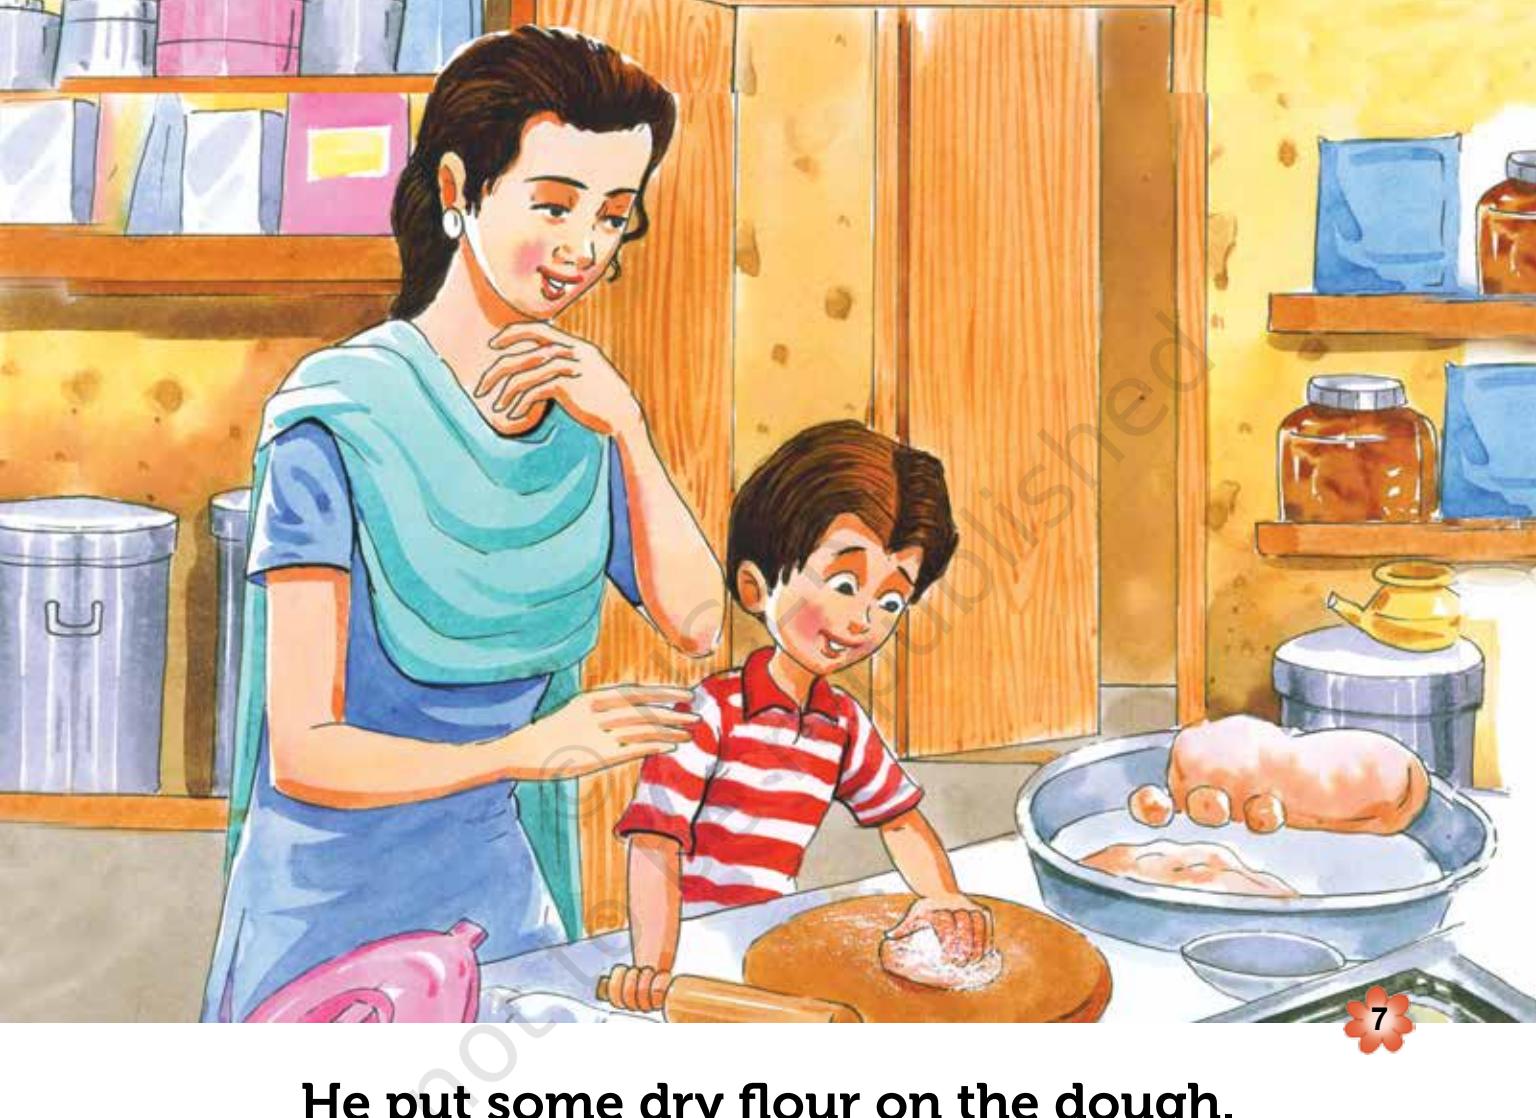

Jamal asked his mother for some dough.

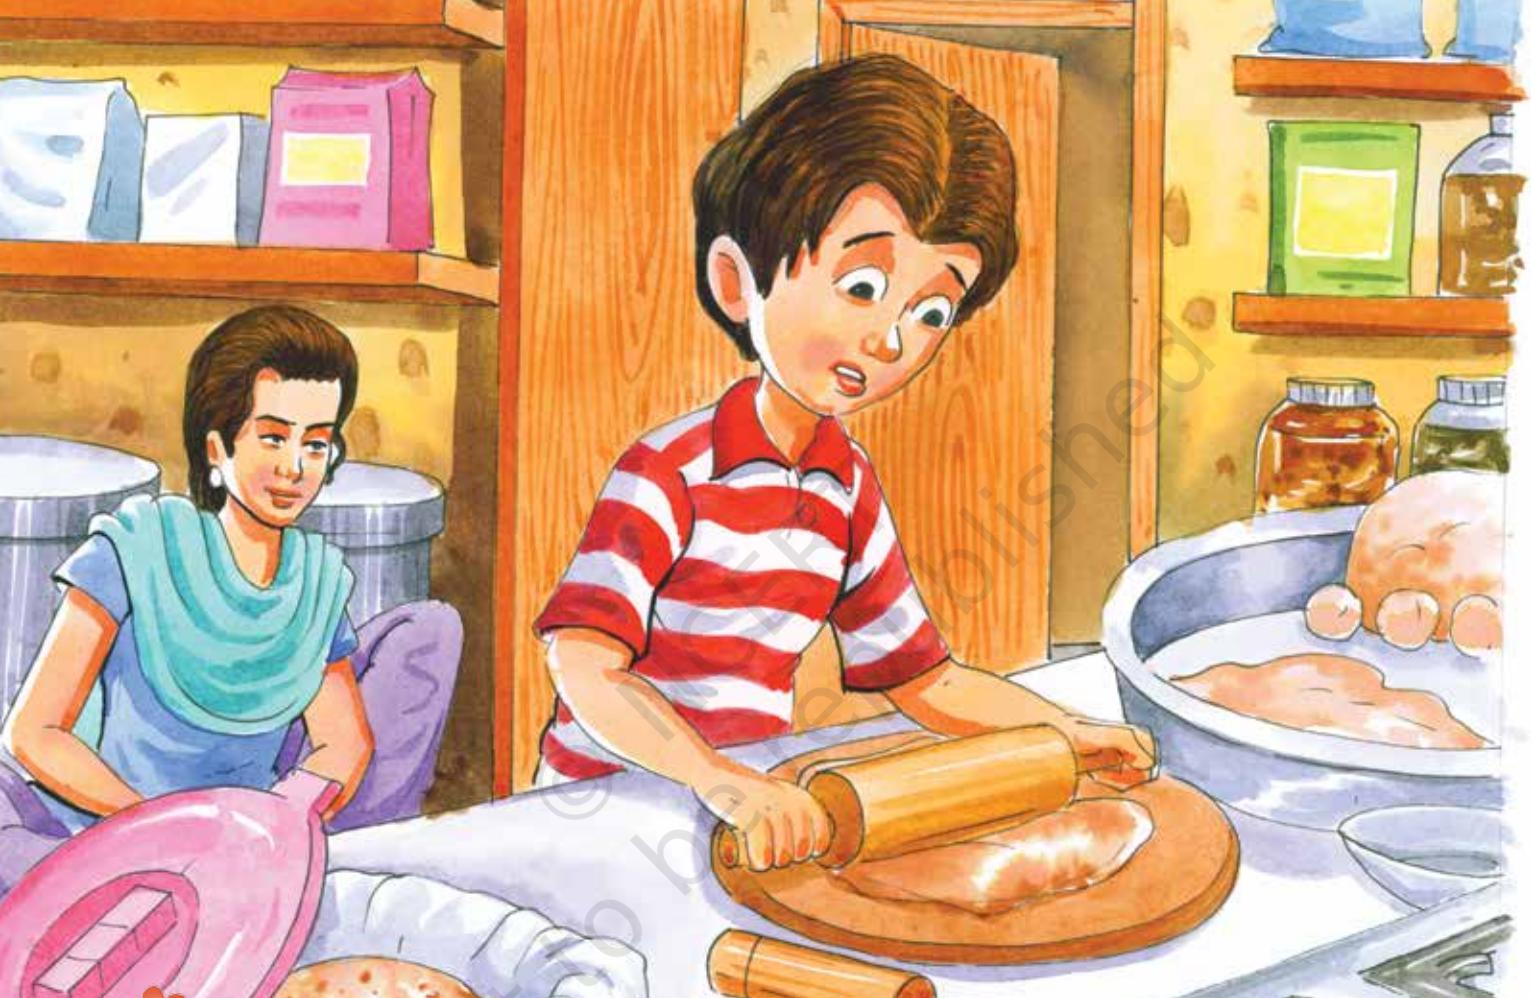

Mummy gave him a small ball of dough.

A woman with dark hair tied back, wearing a light blue sari, stands behind a young boy in a red and white striped polo shirt. They are in a kitchen setting. The woman is smiling and looking towards the boy. The boy is focused on rolling out dough on a wooden board with a rolling pin. In the background, there are shelves with various containers and jars, and a large metal drum. A plate with two pieces of bread is on the counter to the right.

Jamal began to roll the dough.

He put some dry flour on the dough.

Jamal was not able to make the roti round.

Jamal wondered how to make it round.

He picked up a bowl.

He placed the bowl on the roti and turned it.

12

Wow! Now the roti was round.

Mummy cooked Jamal's roti.

It puffed up fully.

Jamal and Madan ate the roti.

Jamal said, that he had made the roti.
